

FARM-TO-FORK Festival

VENDOR IMPACT GRANT

2024 Farm-to-Fork Festival Vendor Impact Grant

Eligibility Criteria Checklist

Use this checklist to determine if you meet the eligibility criteria to apply and potentially receive the 2024 Farm to Fork Festival Vendor Impact Grant. Applications to apply will be released May 15, 2024.

- Provides a food and/or agricultural-related product or service
- Self-identify as minority/person(s) of color and/or LGBTQ+
- Utilizes at least one ingredient or material that is locally sourced within 150 miles of Sacramento
- Has not previously participated as a Farm-to-Fork Festival vendor
- Has not received a previous Farm-to-Fork Festival Vendor Impact Grant
- Can demonstrate a financial need
- If on-site cooking and/or serving hot foods, have read the Sacramento Fire Marshal Hot Foods requirements
- Not affiliated with a political campaign or providing information relative to any political cause, initiative, or issue.
- Can demonstrate an adherence to one or more of these Farm-to-Fork Values:
 - Health: Grow and utilize nutritious ingredients and cooking practices in America's Farm-to-Fork Capital
 - Economy: Support and patronize local businesses and growers, driving local investment and employment opportunities in America's Farm-to-Fork Capital
 - Environment: Utilize available tools to reduce waste and create resource preservation of America's Farm-to-Fork Capital
 - Community: Engage, educate and support local consumers and organizations to exemplify the values of America's Farm-to-Fork Capital